About the Show

Fancy Nancy the Musical

Adapted for Stage by Susan DiLallo & Danny Abosch

Based on the Fancy Nancy series of books by Jane O'Connor

Not all that glitters is glitter.

For young Nancy, 'fancy' may not be a strong word. Bedecked in boas, sparkles and glam, she opines that her family is too plain, and gives them a master class in posh-ness. In the course of more than 70 books, Nancy always gets caught up in the glitter, but ends up learning what's really important. A gem for all children.

Theatre Etiquette

Just like you need to be respectful and quiet in school during class, you need to act the same way during a stage performance. All of the people involved in the production, both cast and crew, work very hard to be sure they give a great performance. It is the job of the audience members to help the performers give their best performance possible.

Follow the rules below to ensure you and everyone else enjoys the show!

- Arrive to the theatre on time
- Visit the restroom before the performance begins and at intermission
- Turn your cellphone off
- Pay attention to any special announcements
- Don't talk during the performance
- Do not take pictures
- No eating or drinking in the theatre
- Don't put your feet on the seats or kick the seat in front of you
- Remain in your seat during the performance

Give Nancy some color and show off how fancy you can be!
